PRIVACY STATEMENT

Why we collect your personal information

As a registered training organisation (RTO), we collect your personal information so we can process and manage your enrolment in a vocational education and training (VET) course with us.

How we use your personal information

We use your personal information to enable us to deliver VET courses to you, and otherwise, as needed, to comply with our obligations as an RTO.

How we disclose your personal information

We are required by law (under the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (Cth) (NVETR Act)) to disclose the personal information we collect about you to the National VET Data Collection kept by the National Centre for Vocational Education Research Ltd (NCVER). The NCVER is responsible for collecting, managing, analysing and communicating research and statistics about the Australian VET sector. We are also authorised by law (under the NVETR Act) to disclose your personal information to the relevant state or territory training authority.

How the NCVER and other bodies handle your personal information

The NCVER will collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with the law, including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) and the NVETR Act. Your personal information may be used and disclosed by NCVER for purposes that include populating authenticated VET transcripts; administration of VET; facilitation of statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage; and understanding the VET market.

The NCVER is authorised to disclose information to the Australian Government Department of Education, Skills and Employment (DESE), Commonwealth authorities, State and Territory authorities (other than registered training organisations) that deal with matters relating to VET and VET regulators for the purposes of those bodies, including to enable:

- administration of VET, including program administration, regulation, monitoring and evaluation
- facilitation of statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage
- understanding how the VET market operates, for policy, workforce planning and consumer information.

The NCVER may also disclose personal information to persons engaged by NCVER to conduct research on NCVER's behalf.

The NCVER does not intend to disclose your personal information to any overseas recipients.

For more information about how the NCVER will handle your personal information please refer to the NCVER's Privacy Policy at www.ncver.edu.au/privacy.

If you would like to seek access to or correct your information, in the first instance, please contact your RTO using the contact details listed below.

DESE is authorised by law, including the Privacy Act and the NVETR Act, to collect, use and disclose your personal information to fulfil specified functions and activities. For more information about how the DESE will handle your personal information, please refer to the DESE VET Privacy Notice at <https://www.dese.gov.au/national-vet-data/vet-privacy-notice>.

If you require a copy of the DESE VET Privacy Notice and are unable to access it electronically, please advise your Axial Consultant and we will provide you with a download or hard copy of this notice.

Surveys

You may receive a student survey which may be run by a government department or an NCVER employee, agent, third-party contractor or another authorised agency. Please note you may opt out of the survey at the time of being contacted.

Guide for Genuine Temporary Entrant Statement

Your Genuine Temporary Entrant Statement (GTE Statement) is a requirement of the visa application process. You may choose to submit your GTE Statement to Axial with your application. A well written GTE Statement can aid your application by giving us a genuine guide to who you are and why your chosen course is right for you.

Please prepare your responses in a separate document and address each section below. Each section must be addressed in full and in your own words. Your GTE Statement should be no more than 300 words (2000 character limit) long.

Genuine Temporary Entrant Statement Criteria

1. Introduce yourself with your full name, date of birth, nationality and where you are currently living. Briefly describe your current circumstances (e.g. are you currently working, studying, travelling etc.). Include what program are you applying for and what city/campus.
2. Provide brief details of your education history – from Year 10 and 12 equivalent qualifications to your highest qualification. Please mention any highlights or academic achievements; or explain any circumstances where your grade results were affected.
3. If applicable, describe your employment history including the name of the company, job title and the duration of each job you have held. Attach a brief CV / resume to your application and any employer references.
4. Explain reasons for any major gaps in your studies and/or employment history.
5. Are there similar programs available in your home country and if so what led you to seek education overseas in Australia?
6. Tell us about your career goals and what kind of employment opportunities you are anticipating when you return to your home country. This could include information about recent economic developments and international opportunities. If possible, please indicate your salary expectations, promotion opportunities, professional or business development as a result of your studies.
7. Describe any other compelling reasons for returning to your home country once you successfully complete your studies in Australia (e.g. family, work commitments, etc.)
8. If you already have a post-secondary qualification, discuss how this program will complement your previous study and /or experience. If there is no link, explain why you are seeking a change of qualification and therefore a career change.
Note: major career changes need to be carefully explained.
9. If you have dependents (spouse and children), please provide their names and age. Also indicate if they plan to accompany you or join you later or remain in your home country whilst you study in Australia.
10. If applicable, detail any previous travel to Australia and any instances of a visa rejection for Australia or any other country. Please provide a brief explanation and visa refusal decision record.
11. Please describe how your studies and living costs will be funded.
Note: You may be required to prove that you have sufficient funds to support yourself (and any dependents) during your first year of studies in Australia.

12. Your Statement of Purpose must end with the following statement:

I declare that the particulars given above are true and correct. I understand that incorrect or incomplete statements may result in my application not being accepted.
